EXCEPTIONS ARE OVERRULED

Supreme Court Renders Opinion on Some Technical Points.

A decision was handed down by the Supreme Court yesterday in which the exceptions of the plaintiff in the case of Becky L. K. K. Kalamakee against Henry Wharton and others were overruled.

The syllabus of the decision states that a "transcript of evidence not made a part of a bill of exceptions, by reference or otherwise, can not be considered."

"A continuance in this court for the purpose of applying to the trial court for an amendment of a bill of exceptions will not be granted in the absence of a showing of grounds for the amendment."

"The burden of sustaining allegations of error is upon the appellant. Exceptions for the determination of which a transcript is necessary must, in its absence, be overruled."

Peacock Estate.
The inventory and appraisement of the estate of the late Walter C. Peacock was filed yesterday, the appraisers being Frank L. Winter, Frank F. Fernandez, and M. T. Simonton. According to the appraisers' valuation of the estate it is worth $79,692.34. Of this amount the property of the Royal Annex is set down for $18,000; Queen street property valued at $3650, and the property at the corner of Merchant and Bishop valued at $11,760. The value of 975 shares of the capital stock of W. C. Peacock & Company is set down at $43,875.

An indictment was returned by the grand jury against Edward Parker, the negro who was charged with striking Police Officer Apana with a bottle. The indictment was found for "assault with a weapon imminently and obviously dangerous to life." Officer Apana appeared before the grand jury as a witness yesterday.
